Think you've got the "write stuff"?

Every day we hear great stories from our Customers about saving. We especially love anecdotes about kids who are learning the basics of money management. Now, ING DIRECT wants YOU to help us inspire children by spinning your own savings tale. No matter what your age, here's your chance to write a children's picture book for four- to seven-year-olds that focuses on saving. If you're a grand-prize winner, you'll win $1,000 and your story will get published! Click here for Guidelines and Official Rules.
